

A map of Jerusalem, Israel, serves as the background. It shows streets like Yehuda Burla St, Azza St, and landmarks such as Rehavia Park and the Israel Museum. Overlaid on the map are several colorful icons: a red pin with a white t-shirt, a blue pin with a white open book, a purple pin with a white car, and another blue pin with a white open book. Two large green curved arrows frame the title text.
